312/general

Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

October 27, 1922. Continuing on the above matter, Operative proceeded to the Pennsylvania Railroad Station and there boarded a train for New Brunswick, N.J.

Upon arrival at New Brunswick, N.J., Operative left the train and proceeded to the vicinity of George & Albany St., New Brunswick, N.J. After remaining in the vicinity of George & Albany St., Operative proceeded about Town until about 8.15 p.m., and then returned to the vicinity of the Telegraph Office on George St., and while there observed a fight amongst several of the reports. After the excitement had somewhat subsided, two Police Officers were stationed there to preserve order.

Operative being unable to remain about the Telegraph Office without becoming conspicuous, proceeded to the railroad station. At the railroad station Operative noticed several of the reporters trying to get Mrs. Gibson on the telephone. Operative made an effort to learn the results of the reporters' efforts to get Mrs. Gibson on the telephone, but could not learn anything.

At 10.56 p.m. Operative boarded a train for New York City, and discontinued.
